Seriously Cool Chenin Blanc 2025, Stellenbosch, South Africa

SPECIAL PRICE £11.49 (normally £14.99)

A bright and expressive Chenin partly from 30–40-year-old bush-vines in the cool, coastal Heldeberg area of Stellenbosch, then further enlivened with exceptional fruit from Waterkloof's own windswept, regenerative vineyard directly in front of the Atlantic. 2025 was a hallmark vintage. Fermentation and long lees contact in concrete eggs and older barrels gives a lightly honeyed wine of underlying structure and richness, offset by a lovely freshness. A wine befitting of its name!

RED

Juan Gil Yellow Label Monastrell 2024,
DO Jumilla, Spain

SPECIAL PRICE £12.49 (normally £14.99)

Yellow label is a benchmark wine that really put Juan Gil on the map. What is impressive is how it continues to adapt. It has richness, of course. There's a ripeness of fruit and generosity. But if you haven't tasted it for a couple of vintages you'll see there's something approaching elegance here. It's bright and with purity too and most importantly, round and silky tannin. A really lovely wine for barbeques and long summer evenings.

Seriously Cool Cinsault 2023,
WO Stellenbosch, South Africa

SPECIAL PRICE £12.49 (normally £15.99)

Chillable reds are firmly on trend, and once again Waterkloof have proved they were ahead of the curve - their first vintage of this juicy, vibrant, and effortlessly cool Cinsault was made back in 2012. Crafted from low-yielding, 30+ year-old bush vines, with whole-bunch fermentation and a natural winemaking approach, it combines serious quality with great drinkability - an essential summer red!

Bodega Urqo Malbec Organico 2024,
Valle de Uco, Argentina

SPECIAL PRICE £13.49 (normally £17.99)

In a quiet corner of Tupungato lies a block of Malbec that is colder than its neighbours. The average temperature here is recordably lower and has been deemed a cold-trap by Urqo's viticulturalist Franco Bastia. These ferments from these blocks somehow always taste more ethereal, lifted, aromatic-indeed pretty. Malbec can be such an aromatic, lifted joy, especially in its youth, before it is coupled with oak or other. This is 100% steel tank fermentation from what is an accredited organically farmed block which has much of Uco's colour and grip, but equally a Pinot Noirescence of prettiness on the nose and palate. It's a beautiful wine and very happily sports a bonkers label representative of ancient Andean mysticism rendered with Tintin-esque joy.

Valley of the Sun Lebanese Red 2024,

Monferrato Rosso Marchesi di Grésy 2019
DOC Piemonte, Italy

SPECIAL PRICE £18.99 (normally £23.99)

An impressive and fine, mature 100% Merlot from the iconic Marchesi di Grésy estate. Produced from Merlot fruit, grown on their Monte Colombo vineyard in the Monferrato hills. It sees 12 months in Allier barriques, followed by 24 months in Slavonian oak casks bringing depth and character, but the vibrancy of the Merlot delivers first. Fresh and aromatic with damsons, plums and red cherries, together with ripe tannins and a hint of spice - leading to a fine, long and structured finish.

Bononia Estate Koshava Gamza Cabernet Franc 2024,
PGI Danube Plain, Bulgaria

SPECIAL PRICE £14.49 (normally £16.99)

Bulgarian wine might feel esoteric but as recently as the 1980s, the country was the fourth largest exporter of wine to the UK. This Gamza / Cabernet Franc is an excellent introduction to contemporary winemaking in the country.
